Give Thanks to God with a Grateful Heart.

“Enter His gates with thanksgiving and His courts with praise...” Psalm 100:4

May you enjoy a beautiful Thanksgiving Day with Jesus and with the people you cherish and love!

A Life of Purpose

As a teenager, you decide you want to go to college. So, in high school, you get a part time job in a fast-food restaurant and make the best grades that you can to help you get into college and to pay for your college tuition. When you are accepted into college, you study hard to achieve the best university grades and you take every opportunity to add to your resume so that you can be hired for your dream job. Finally in your desired career, you work up the ladder to achieve better positions and to receive a larger salary so that you can accumulate money for your retirement. You work your whole life so that you can eventually stop working and then spend your final days in relaxation.

If this is all that there is to life, then what's the point?

If you are truly a Christian, you know that your life has an eternal and divine purpose. Every day, you are on an adventure and a mission. When you are living under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, you have the ability to see your life the way God sees it; and you begin to understand how God makes everything in your life work together for His purpose and for your good.

Quote of the Week

"The truth is that the term spiritual life is simply a way of referring to your entire life—every moment and facet of it—from God's perspective."
~John Ortberg
