Abundant Life Church

Week of July 18, 2021, A.D.

Abundant Life Church exists to exalt Jesus (worship), to teach the Bible (grow), to share the gospel (reach), to love one another (connect), and to serve the Lord (serve).

Reflecting Goodness

The goal of every true follower of Christ is not only to experience God, but also to reflect the personality of God. We are not only to enjoy God's attributes, but we are also to grow into those attributes. So, when we experience the goodness of God—when we truly believe the goodness of God and trust that God's plans for us will be satisfying—we have a response. The response is that we become good ourselves.

What does that mean in real life? It means, as verses 13 and 14 of the psalm spell out, that we will make it publicly clear that God has been good to us. We will declare God's favor and proclaim God's salvation. We will become visible examples of God's blessing, attributing the blessing not to good fortune or our natural abilities, but to the God from whom all good gifts are received.

Not only are we to tell of God's good favor, but we are to demonstrate God's good favor as well. The believer who knows that he has been blessed by a generous God cannot help but become generous. It is an inviolable principle: Our worship of any characteristic of God will cultivate that same characteristic in our own hearts. It may be slow growth sometimes, but the attributes of God will always grow within hearts that appreciate those attributes. If we honor God for His goodness, we will become good. Our generosity will reflect His, our kindness will reflect His, and our actions will reflect His. Worshipers of a good God will grow to be just like that good God.

This is an exciting principle, isn't it? While many believers thank God for His goodness and then move on to the next favor they need, true followers of Christ know that receiving a blessing is not the end of the cycle. Receiving a blessing from God calls for a dual response: Gratitude toward God and a reflection of God for others to see.

How can you be good like God? Think of what God has done for you. God gave you the truth. So it would be good for you to share the truth with others. God has met your needs. So it would be good for you to meet the needs of others. Any good thing that God has done for us is to be imitated by those who love Him.
