The Coming Judgement

God's most severe judgment against sin took place in the Garden of Eden. When Adam and Eve sinned, they died spiritually, and the pain of death was loosed on the whole world and all the generations that have followed them.

The second most severe judgment took place in the days of Noah. "Then the Lord say that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every intent of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually." (Genesis 6:5)

Romans 1:21 applies to the world in Noah's day, and to America in our day. "Although they knew God, they did not glorify Him as God, nor were they thankful, but became futile in their thoughts, and their foolish hearts were darkened." The King James Version says, they "became vain in their imaginations."

One of America's leading exports is entertainment. But we're not just exporting fun. We're exporting values. Romans 1:21 perfectly describes most of the content in games, films, music, television, and the rest. They come from vain imaginations and foolish hearts that are growing ever darker with depraved violence, sexual promiscuity, and bizarre combinations of the two.

We see thousands of advertisements a day. Madison Avenue designed most of them to excite in our hearts "the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life." (1 John 2:16) To sell their products, marketing professionals have become exceedingly proficient at amplifying evil thoughts and imagination.

Jesus said, "As the days of Noah were, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be." (Matthew 24:37)

We now live in those times.
